

I chose this writing because it was about my first dog and it was the happiest time of my life.

I think of myself as a writer because I sound out words I don't know.

One thing that is getting easier when I write since third grade is spelling is a lot easier.

What I love about writing is that it is fun to write stories.

I choose this journal because it reminds me of my stories. When I don't know how to spell a word, I sound it out. This journal entry shows that I should work on spelling. My greatest strengths in writing are spelling and writing. My greatest weaknesses in writing are writing a story.

I choose This journal entry Because I like this one. My greatest weakness my hand gets mumm. I Think of myself as A Writer because I write a lot. What I Did not like about writing This was I miss my mom. I could be a Better writer if I would not scriBBle.

I chose this journal entry because. It's the highest mountain in the world. I could be a better writer if I would if I write more. When I don't know how to spell a word I sound it out. My writing goal for this year is to write different words that I don't now how to spell. The best thing about this writing it. It's nice writing.
