

Todd County School District Policy: HAA

SCHOOL YEAR CALENDAR

The South Dakota Supreme Court held in West Central Education Association v. West Central School District, 2002 SD 163, that the school calendar is not subject to negotiations pursuant to SDCL Ch. 3-18. However, in order that employees (teachers, support staff, and administrators) may have input into the determination of the school calendar (length of school year, beginning date of classes, pre-school workshops, in-service days, make-up days, parent-teacher conferences, vacation days, etc.) for the next school year, a committee made up of three teachers (two shall be TCEA members, selected by TCEA), three support staff personnel (two shall be ESP members, selected by ESP), two administrators (the Superintendent and another administrator selected by the Board, and one Board member (selected by the Board).

The committee will meet no later than November 30th. The committee shall present to the Board the recommendation(s) of the committee/committee members no later than February 1st.
